

SCHRACK INTERNATIONAL

■ SCHRACK ENERGY TECHNOLOGY

■ PROTECTIVE DEVICES

■ SCHRACK INFO

FUNCTION A protective device is a mechanical switch used to: automatically disconnect the circuit from the supply when the current exceeds a pre-defined maximum connect/disconnect a current circuit with a supply via a manual switch PERSONAL PROTECTION Prevents dangerous currents entering the body as a result of too high contact voltages through insulation faults, earth contact FIRE PROTECTION